Center for Bioethics, Health & Society (CBHS)

Spring Seminar Series Speakers & Other Bioethics Events

CBHS Seminars, held on Mondays, 5-6 PM, 308 Greene Hall, Reynolda Campus, WFU

February 1: Robert Audi, PhD, Department of Philosophy, University of Notre Dame: Philosophical Perspectives on Informed Consent (starting at 5:15 pm).

February 15: Terrance McConnell, PhD, Department of Philosophy, UNC-Greensboro: Genetic Interventions and Moral Attitudes

March 1: Andy Lustig, PhD, Department of Religion, Davidson College: How Concepts of Nature Influence Biotechnology Debates

April 5: Daniel K. Nelson, Director, Office of Human Research Protections, UNC-CH: Protecting Research Subjects in the Digital Age: Lessons Learned the Hard Way

April 19: Arthur Frank, PhD, Department of Sociology, University of Calgary: Extending Bioethics to Cancer Survivorship: What Is Useful and What Is Troublesome

OTHER UPCOMING BIOETHICS EVENTS SPONSORED/COSPONSORED BY CBHS

March 10: Bud Hammes, PhD: Advance Care Planning Lecture, 4-5PM, Nutrition Commons, WFUBMC

April 6: Promethean Medicine Part I: Ethical Issues in Regenerative Medicine Workshop, 1-4:30 PM, Winston-Salem Benton Convention Center

April 15: Patient-Centered Law and Ethics Conference, WFU Law School, 9am-4pm

April 16: Promethean Medicine Part II, Eric Juengst, PhD, 12-2 PM, UNCC, Charlotte